

RGD ON TAXES AND FEES - 2018

Date of applicability

RGD 2018:

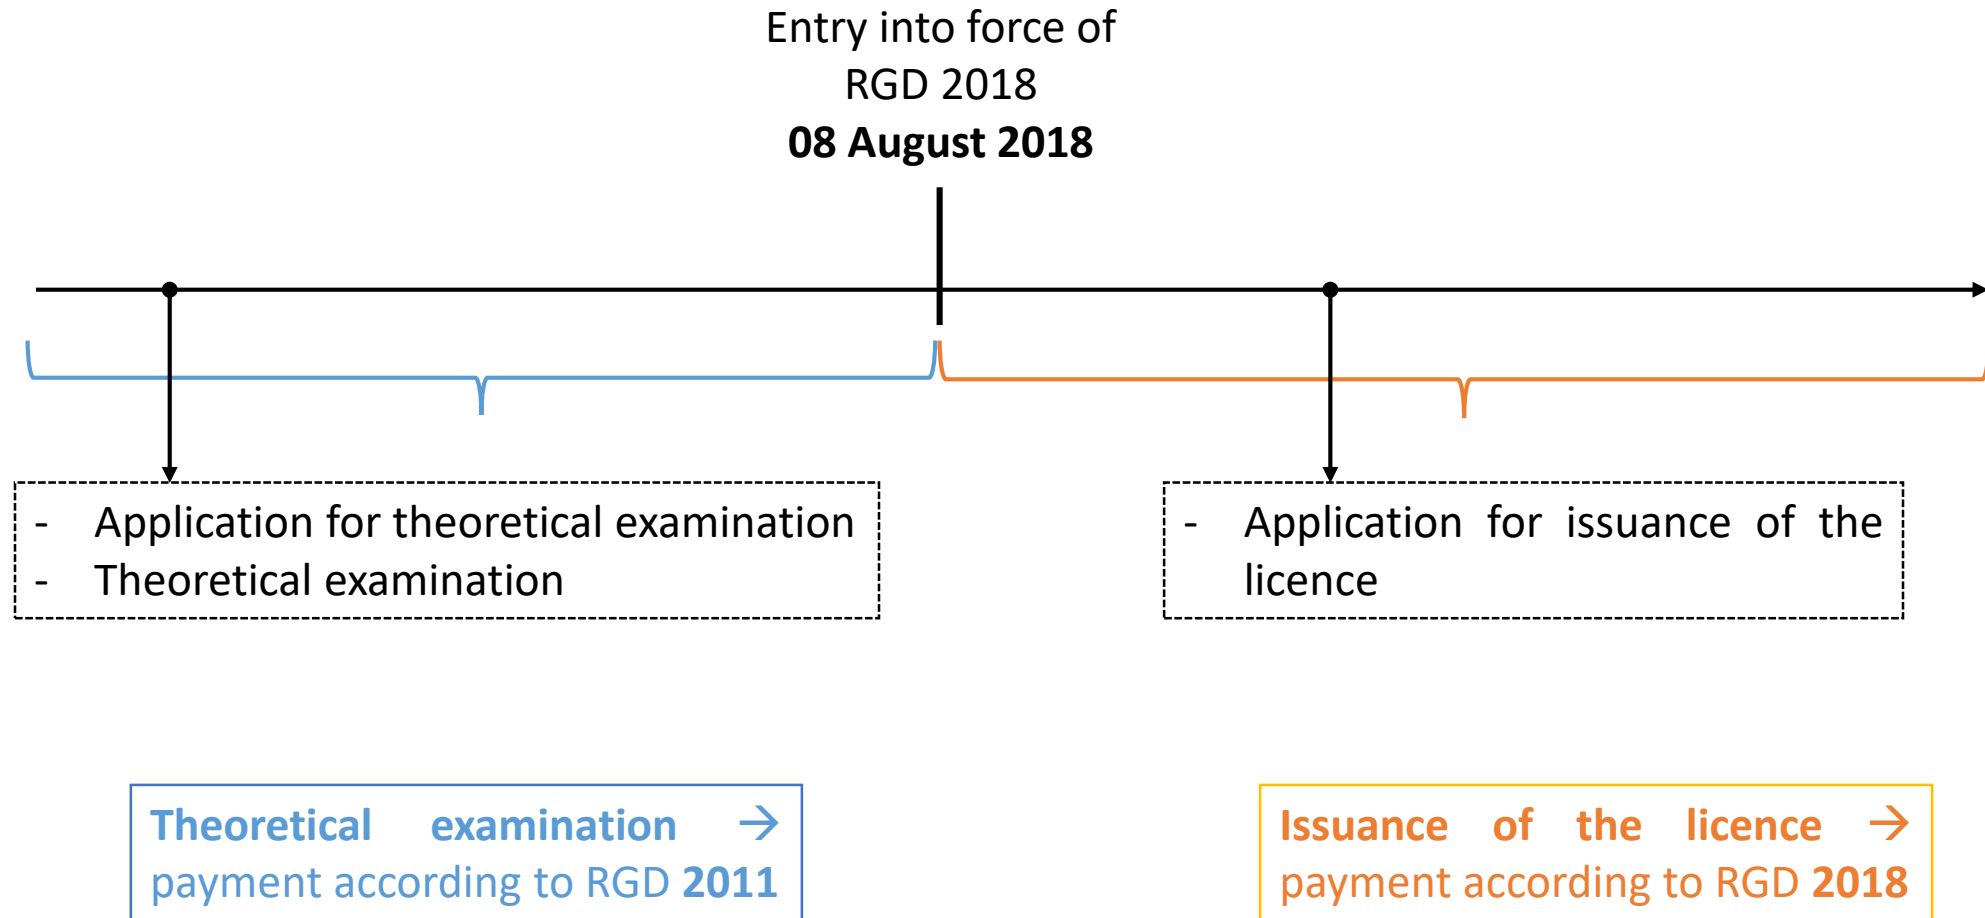

Taxes and fees laid down in the RGD of 2018 are only applicable for applications introduced after its entry into force.

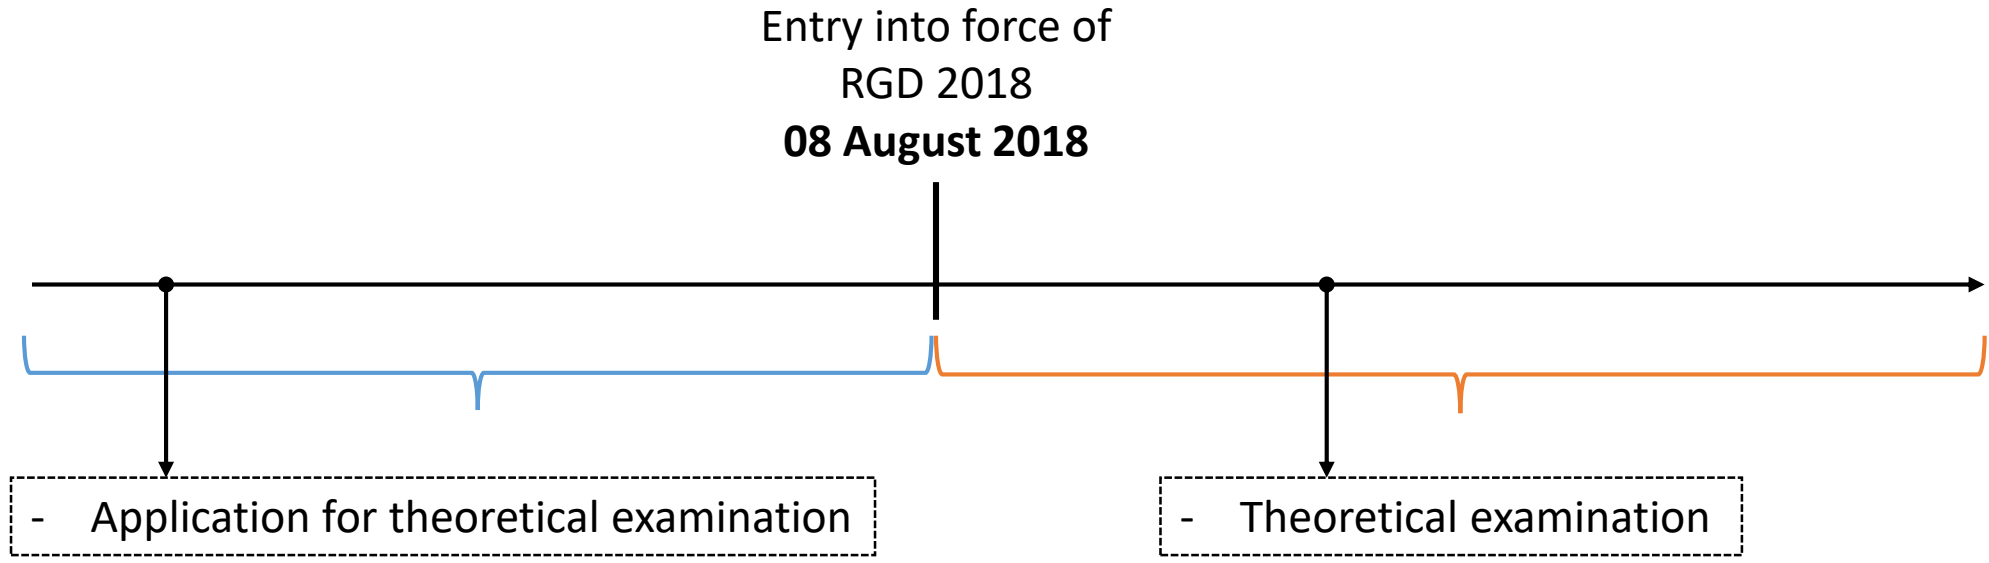

Date of the application (≠ date of billing or services!)

- Date of the signature of application form (ex. application for theoretical examination)
- If no date is indicated: date of the reception by DAC of the application form

Example 1: Theoretical examination and issuance of a licence

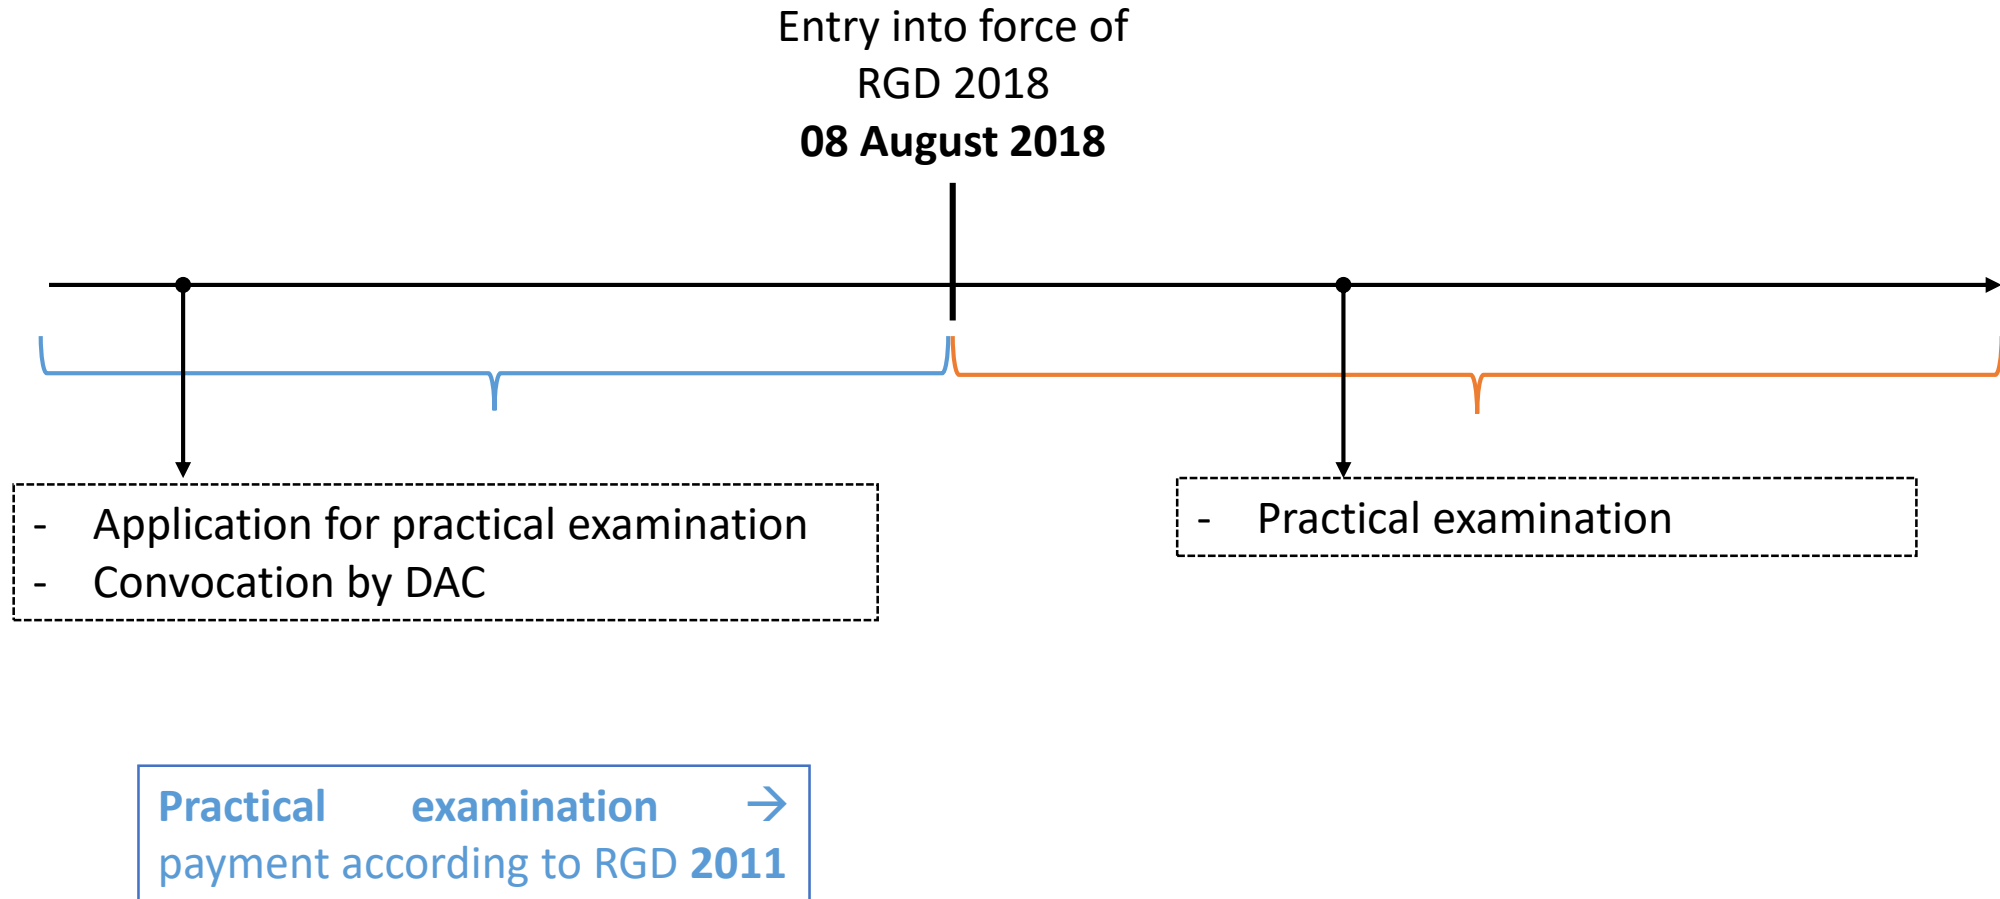

Example 2: Theoretical examination

Theoretical examination → payment according to RGD 2011

Example 3a: Practical examination

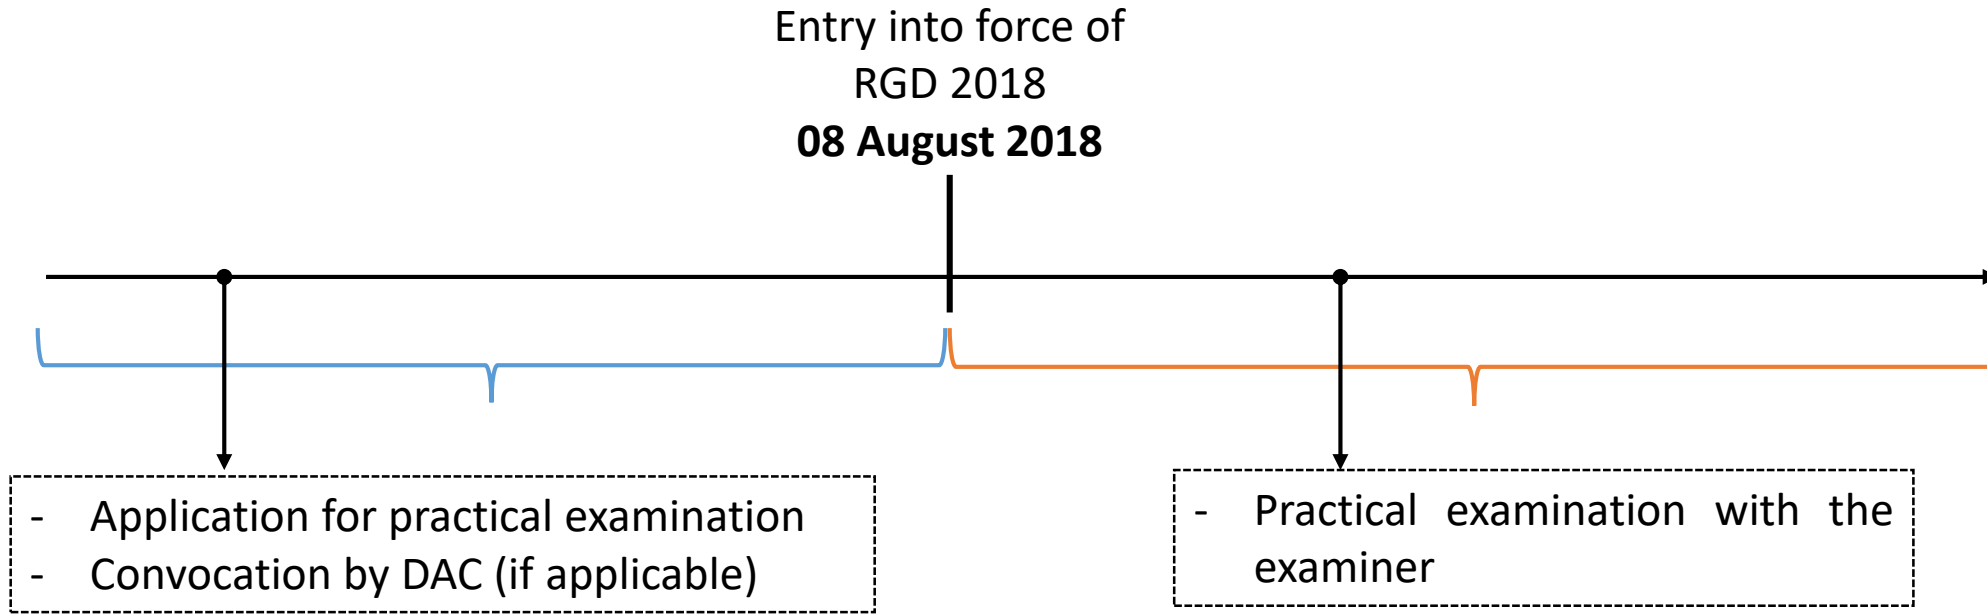

Example 3b: Practical examination

Example 3c: Practical examination

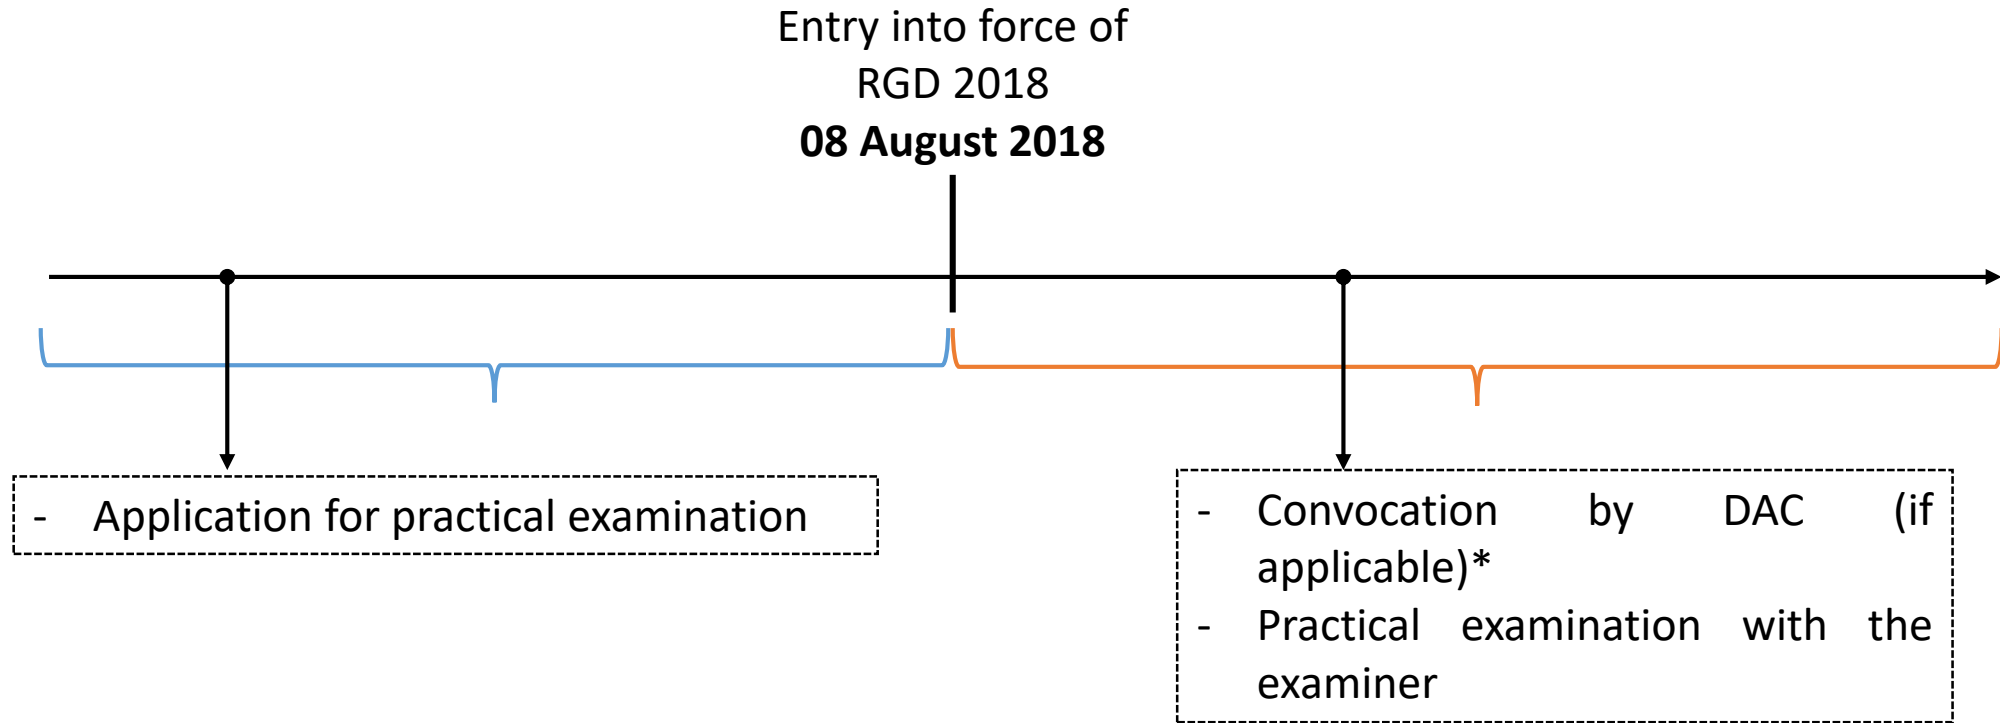

Example 4a: Practical examination with manual endorsement (revalidation)

Practical examination →
payment according to RGD 2011

NO manual endorsement!

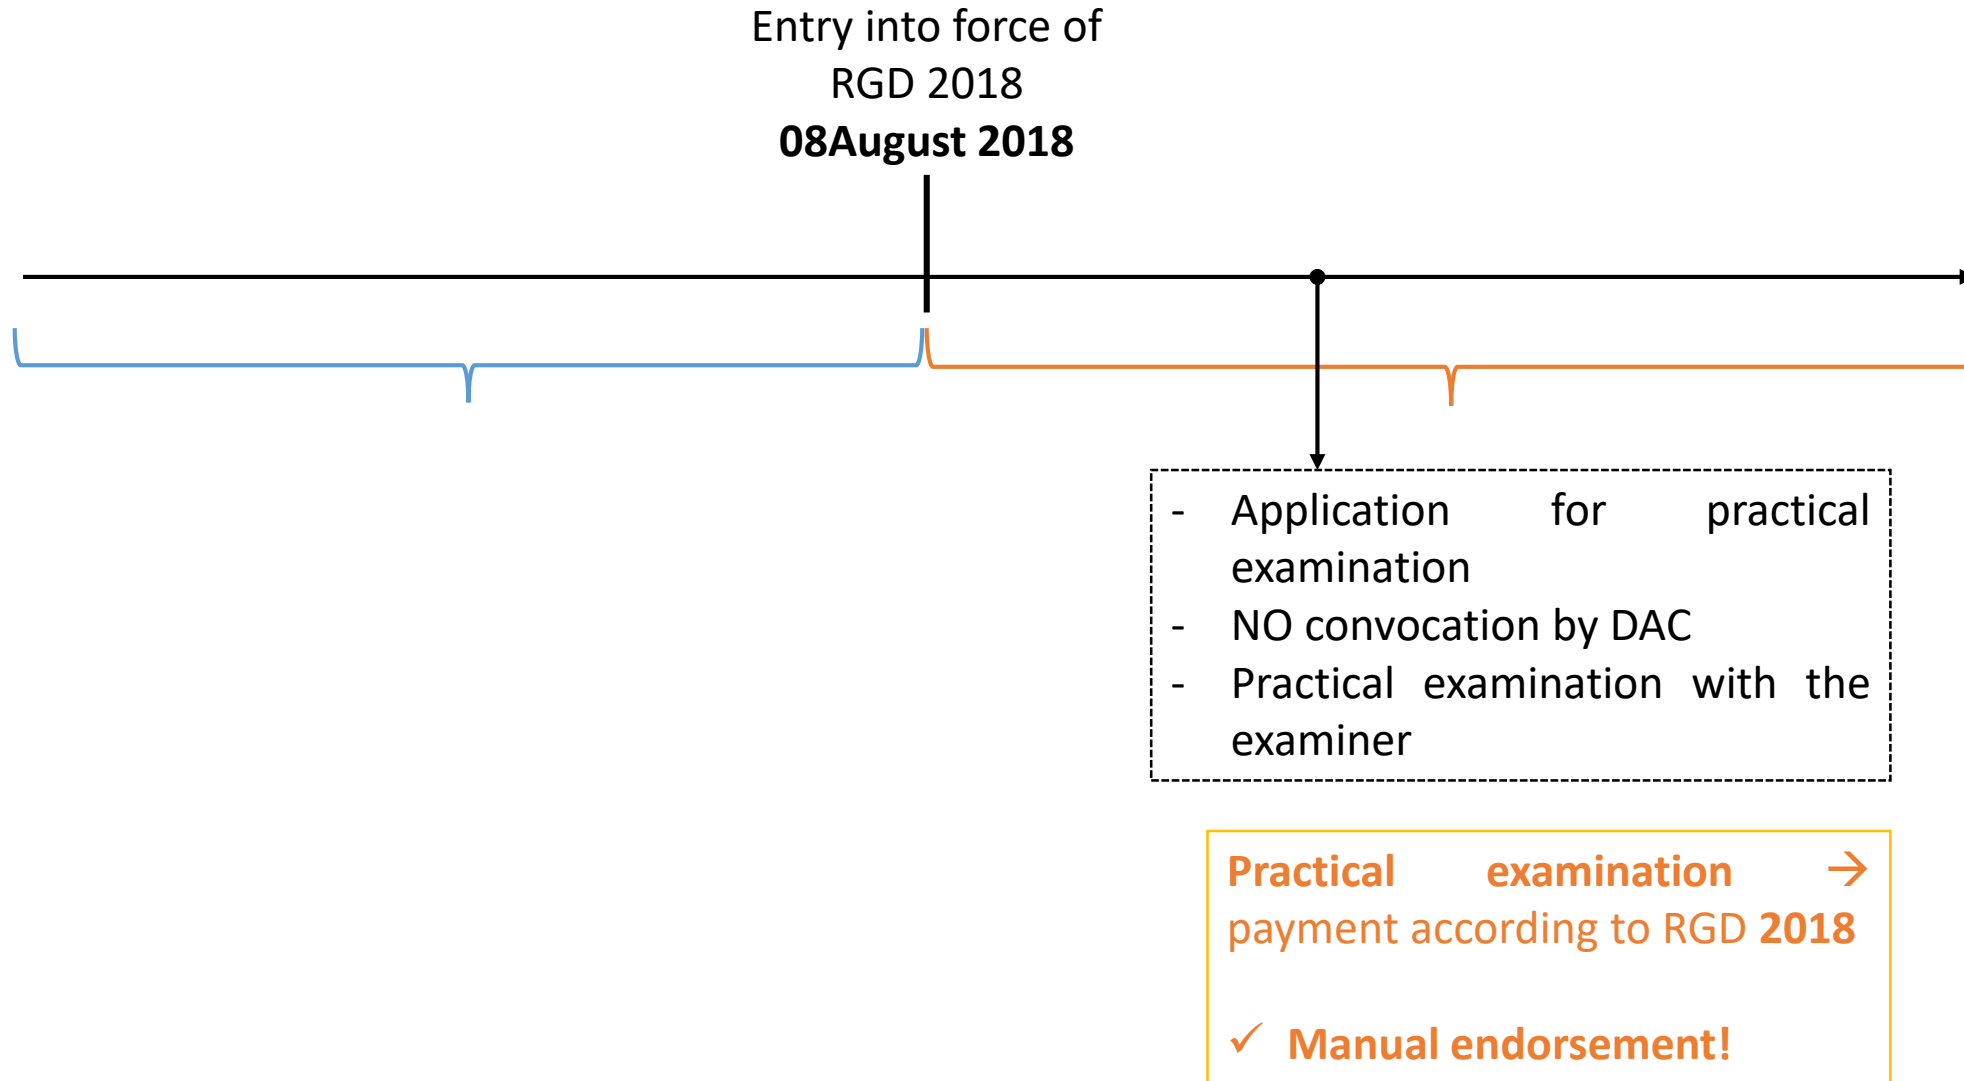

Example 4b: Practical examination with manual endorsement (revalidation)

Practical examination →
payment according to RGD 2011
NO manual endorsement!

 For examiners: If convocation
→ No manual endorsement!*

Example 4c: Practical examination with manual endorsement (revalidation)

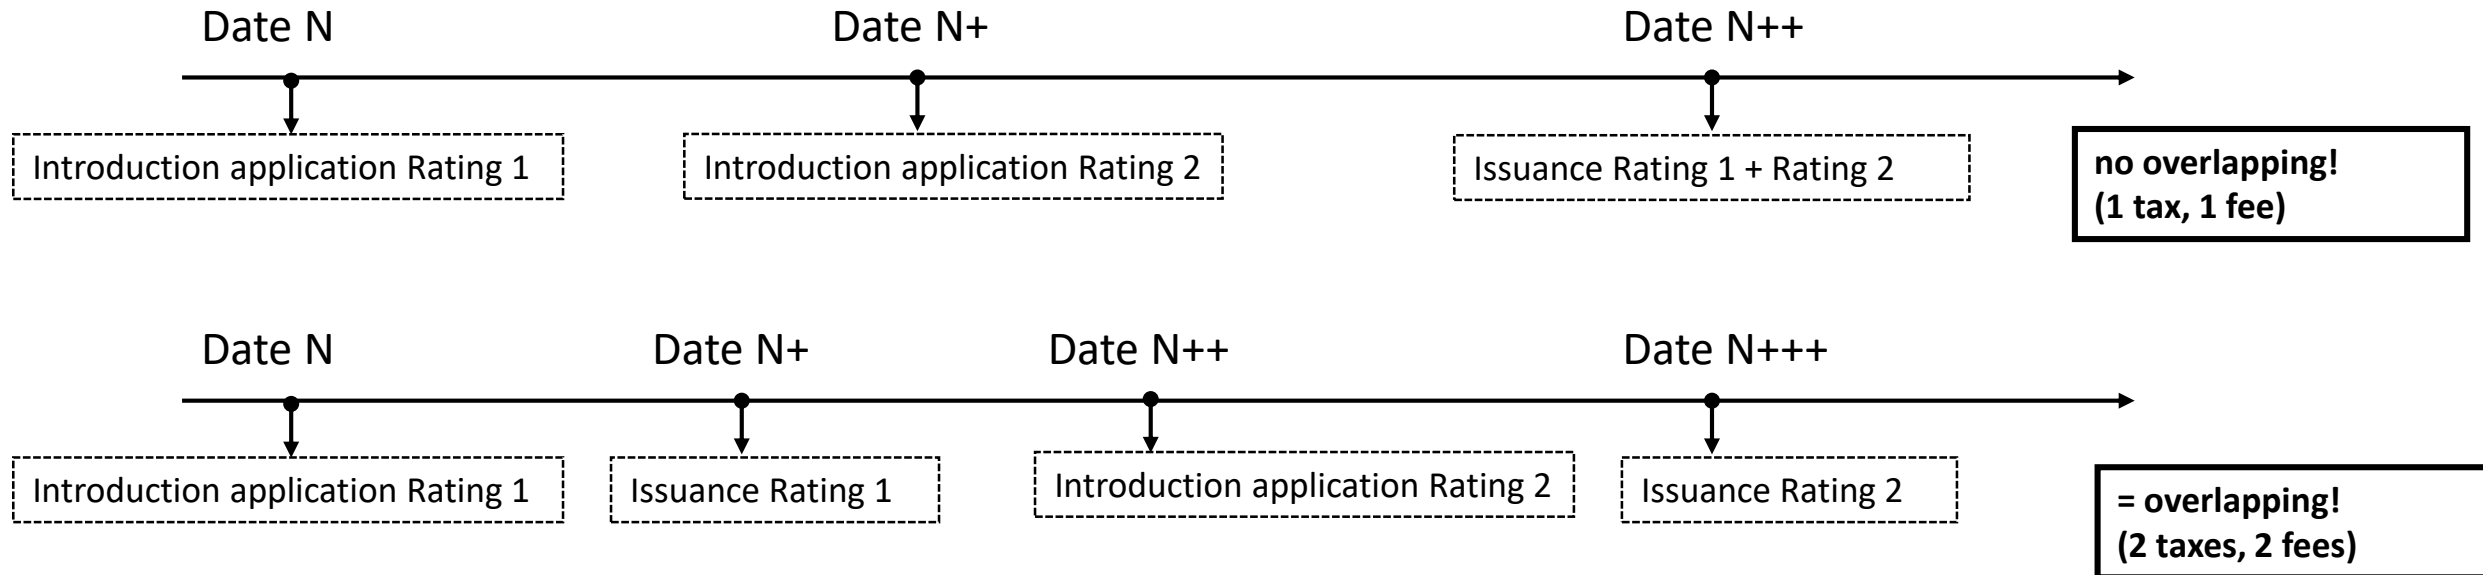

Rules against overlapping

Rules against overlapping of taxes and fees

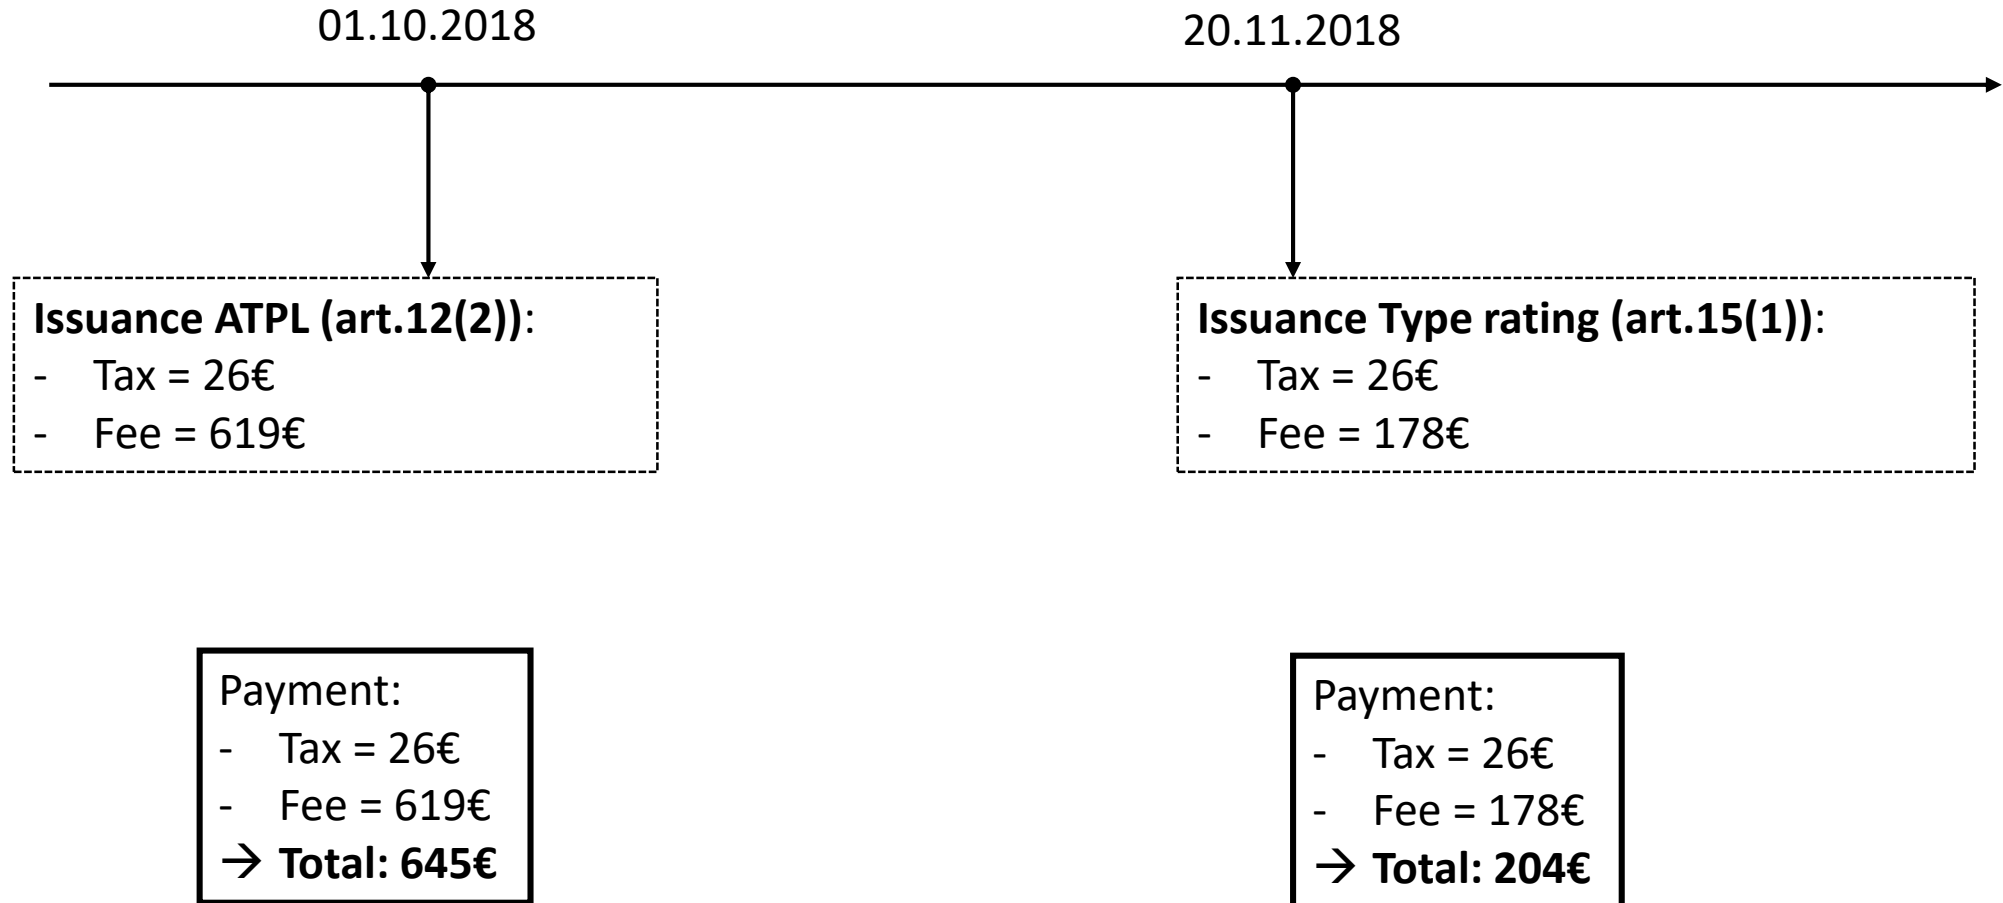

Only one tax and one fee (the highest of each) are payable for the simultaneous issuance or renewal of:

- a licence and one or more associated ratings;
- multiple ratings.

Simultaneous issuance or renewal \neq simultaneous introduction of applications by the candidate!

Example 1a: ATPL + Type rating

Example 1b: ATPL + Type rating

01.10.2018

